SENATOR BEUTLER: No, in fact...

SENATOR ROBINSON: It basically would be for one. Now is there...after...then they send a report in. Is this correct?

SENATOR BEUTLER: No, this is a...this word "report" has been going around all morning.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Yeah, that's right.

SENATOR BEUTLER: There is no...

SENATOR ROBINSON: I didn't see any report.

SENATOR BEUTLER: ..report requirement to anybody.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Basically, it's just a meeting then.

SENATOR BEUTLER: It's a meet.... They have to do a fiscal analysis and they have to have a public meeting. Those are the only two things. They don't report to anybody.

SENATOR ROBINSON: And they don't have to send the fiscal analysis to anyone. Is that correct?

SENATOR BEUTLER: No. No.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Okay. Do they also talk about being more efficient, or is it just consolidation?

SENATOR BEUTLER: No, it's just geared towards consolidation. right.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Not being more efficient. Not where two school districts could go together and create efficiencies. It wouldn't involve something like that then?

SENATOR WILL: One minute.

SENATOR BEUTLER: No, but I mean there's nothing to keep them doing that from their own and hopefully, perhaps as a result of doing the fiscal analysis and looking at the different integral parts of the two different school districts, they might well come to the conclusion that there are things that they can share
